March 2015 Proclaimed as American Red Cross Month

Kerrville, Texas (February 25, 2015) – At the February 24, 2015 Kerrville City Council meeting, Mayor Pratt read a proclamation and presented it to Jacques DuBose, Executive Director of the American Red Cross Hill Country Chapter proclaiming March 2015 as American Red Cross Month. For more than 98 years, the American Red Cross of the Texas Hill Country has been in place where citizens join together and are always willing to take care of others in situations from home fires and windstorms to flooding and man-made disasters. The Red Cross is a volunteer-led organization that relies on the generosity of the American people. All residents of Kerr County are encouraged, through the proclamation, to volunteer their time and give generously to the American Red Cross and its local office. Kerrville City Hall will fly the Red Cross flag during the month of March honoring Red Cross month.
